- 7.4 If no delivery period is stated in the contract, either party may submit a request in accordance with the preceding clause six months after signing the contract. The date thus determined shall constitute the contractual delivery date.
- 7.5 If delivery is prevented or impeded due to a circumstance specified in Clause 18.1, or by the Purchaser's action or negligence, the delivery period shall be extended accordingly. This provision shall apply regardless whether the circumstance in question occurs before or after expiry of the agreed delivery period.

This also applies to loss of profits and any other financial loss.
- 7.7 The following percentages and maximum amounts shall apply to the referenced penalties: 0.5% per week of the portion of the agreed price applicable to the part of the goods that could not be used as intended due to the delay. If the base amount for calculation of the penalty exceeds NOKK 500,000, a penalty of 0.25% per week shall be assessed on the exceeding amount. The penalty, which is calculated for every complete week of delay reckoned from the agreed delivery date, shall not exceed 7.5% of the portion of the purchase price applicable to the part of the goods that could not be used as intended.
- 7.8 The Purchaser's right to penalties shall preclude any other claim arising from the Supplier's late delivery of the goods.
- 7.9 If the Purchaser finds that he cannot accept delivery of the goods on the agreed date, he should promptly inform the Supplier in writing, stating the reason for the delay and, if possible, when he expects being able to accept delivery. Purchaser who fails to accept delivery on the agreed date shall nevertheless be liable for payment as if the goods had been duly delivered.

- 7.10 If the Purchaser's failure in terms of Clause 7.9 is not due to a circumstance referenced in Clause 18.1, the Supplier may call upon the Purchaser in writing to take delivery of the goods within a reasonable period.
- 7.11 If the Purchaser, regardless of the reason, fails to comply, the Supplier is entitled to cancel the contract by written notice to the Purchaser with respect to the portion of the goods that remains undelivered due to the Purchaser's failure.
- 7.12 Purchaser who fails to take delivery of the goods at the agreed time shall be liable for the risk of damage to the goods and is obliged to compensate the Supplier for any costs associated with care, storage and insurance of the goods.
- 7.13 Should the Supplier cancel the contract pursuant to Clause 7.11, he shall be entitled to compensation by the Purchaser in an amount commensurate with the purchase price of the goods, less any amount that the Supplier may save by not making the delivery to the Purchaser.

- 8.5 Upon the Supplier's request, the Purchaser shall confirm in writing the working hours of the assembly staff as well as the completion of the installation, assembly or commissioning.
- 8.6 The Supplier is entitled to request acceptance of the works after completion. Acceptance shall take effect when the Purchaser has declared acceptance in writing. The same shall apply if the Supplier has granted the Purchaser a reasonable period of time for acceptance after completion of the service and the Purchaser does not refuse acceptance within this period of time, stating at least one significant defect. If the Purchaser fails to do so, the acceptance is deemed granted. Acceptance is also deemed granted if the work has been put into use, if applicable, after an agreed testing period.

11 RETENTION OF TITLE

- 11.1 If it appears unlikely that the Purchaser will fulfil his legal obligations under the contract, or if the Supplier cancels the contract, the Supplier shall have the right to repossess any goods that can still be legally recovered. Until full payment has been made, the buyer shall not without the Supplier's written consent dispose of the goods in a manner that could jeopardize the Supplier's right to repossession. The Purchaser shall return any defective component in the meaning of Clause 12.1 to the Supplier for repair or replacement, unless the Supplier chooses to execute the repairs at the Purchaser's location.
- 12.6 By delivering a duly repaired or replaced component to the Purchaser, the Supplier shall be deemed to have fulfilled his obligations under this clause with respect to the defective component.

In such case, settlement shall be made pursuant to Clause 12.7. The Supplier's obligation to carry out the measures referenced in Clause 12.5 and compensate the Purchaser pursuant to the present paragraph shall be limited to a total amount not exceeding 15 per cent of the price of the goods.
- 12.12 If the Purchaser or any third party remedies a defect improperly, the Supplier shall not be liable for the resulting consequences. The same applies to any changes made to the delivery item without prior approval by the Supplier.
- 12.13 The Supplier's responsibility shall not extend to defects caused by materials supplied or designs stipulated by the Purchaser.
- 12.14 Notwithstanding the provisions of Clauses 12.1-12.13, the Supplier's obligations shall not extend beyond fifteen months from commencement of the original warranty period.
- 12.15 The Supplier's liability is limited to defects arising during proper use and under operating conditions foreseen in the contract. It does not extend to defects caused by inadequate maintenance or improper assembly by the Purchaser, incorrect or negligent treatment, modifications without the Supplier's written consent, repairs incorrectly performed by the Purchaser, or normal wear and tear. The Supplier shall have no liability for defects save as stipulated in Clauses 12.1 – 12.14.
