Irrespective hereof, the Purchaser shall be obliged to inform third parties of the existing rights to the goods in advance. The Purchaser shall bear the costs of an intervention if the third party is not able to reimburse them.

The Purchaser undertakes to comply with all applicable export control and foreign trade regulations of the respective national laws and of the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany, the European Union, and the United States of America. All business transactions are made subject to the reservation that each business transaction, in terms of its content and the natural persons and entities directly or indirectly involved, must be permitted by all of the aforementioned regulations. The Purchaser shall, upon the request of the Supplier, provide immediately to the Supplier all documents deemed by the Supplier to be useful or necessary for obtaining export licenses from authorities or for the export control checks of the Supplier. This includes but is not limited to information about the end user, the final destination and the intended use. The Purchaser should refrain from making binding delivery promises in business transactions that are subject to licensing. Furthermore, the Purchaser undertakes to comply with the internal export control policy of the Supplier. In particular, the Purchaser agrees not to supply, offer for sale or sell for use in weapons and/or weapons systems any goods of the Supplier (items, software and technology) or goods made available by the Supplier. If the Purchaser violates any of the obligations in this section and/or if a business transaction is prohibited in whole or in part, the Supplier may withdraw from the contract or may terminate the contract for good cause without observing the statutory period of notice. Where business transactions require official export licenses, the Supplier may also defer performance until all required export licenses have been obtained. In all such cases the Supplier shall not be liable for any claims for damages arising out of delayed performance or non-performance. Claims of the Supplier arising out of violations of obligations by the Purchaser remain unaffected.

14. Adjustment, Withdrawal

14.1 If and when unforeseeable events pursuant to sec. 5.2 modify the economic objective or the content of the delivery substantially or have a substantial impact on the operations of the Supplier, the contract shall be adjusted accordingly in good faith, subject to the provision stipulated under sec. 5.2. In the event that such adjustment is not economically reasonable, the Supplier shall be entitled to withdraw from the contract.

14.2 The Supplier shall be entitled to withhold deliveries or services or to withdraw from the contract if the Supplier obtains knowledge of any circumstances whereby the Purchaser might become insolvent or, be unable or unwilling to duly fulfill its payment obligations when they become payable due to other reasons.

14.3 The Purchaser shall not be entitled to terminate or withdraw from a contract without the prior agreement of the Supplier. In such case, the Purchaser shall bear all unavoidable costs incurred by Supplier. Especially, the Purchaser shall be obliged to pay the price for any goods purchased or manufactured by Supplier especially for the Purchaser in full.

15. Statute of Limitation

All claims of the Purchaser – regardless of the legal cause – shall become time-barred upon the expiration of 36 months. Any statement by Supplier in response by a claim to defects asserted by the Purchaser is not to be considered to represent entry into negotiations concerning that claim or the circumstances upon which the claim is based, where Supplier rejects the claim in full.

16. Place of Jurisdiction, Applicable Law

16.1 The sole place of jurisdiction for any litigation directly or indirectly arising from this contract shall be the Supplier's place of business. However, the Supplier shall also be entitled to bring actions before a court seated at the Purchaser's place of business. Arbitration clauses are objected.

16.2 All legal relations in connection with this contract shall be governed by the law of the People's Republic of China.

17. Severability

Should any of the provisions of this contract be or become invalid, void or unenforceable, the validity of the remaining provisions shall remain unaffected thereby. In such case the invalid, void or unenforceable provision shall be interpreted or substituted in such a way as to achieve the intended economic objective of the invalid or void provision. This shall not apply if adherence to the contract constitutes an unreasonable hardship for either contract party.
